

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTORS

The Playwriting Boot Camp is conceived of and team-taught by well-known dramaturg/director, Tracy Carroll and award-winning Edmonton playwright, Conni Massing.

CONNI MASSING

Conni is an award-winning writer working in theatre, film and television. Stage credits include Night Shift, part of the This is Yeg anthology, and The Invention of Romance (2014), both premiered by Workshop West Theatre. Her stage adaptations of W.O Mitchell's Jake and the Kid (commissioned and premiered by Theatre Calgary) and Bruce Allen Powe's The Aberhart Summer have been widely produced. She has several publications to her credit, including six of her plays and a comic memoir, Roadtripping: On the Move with the Buffalo Gals, published by Brindle and Glass in 2010. Conni has served as writer-in-residence (and a writing instructor) at the National Theatre School, Playwrights Workshop Montreal, Theatre Network and the Edmonton Public Library. Her writing has been recognized by AMPIA, the Academy of Cinema and Television, the Betty Mitchell Awards, The Writers Guild of Alberta and the Elizabeth Sterling Haynes Awards.

TRACY CARROLL

Tracy has worked as a Director, Dramaturg, Youth Theatre Programmer and Producer for many years in both Ontario and Alberta. She spent 6 years as the Artistic Associate for Alberta Playwrights' Network and was Artistic Associate at the Citadel Theatre where she co-created and directed KidsPlay @ the Citadel, a series of plays for children and their families.

TYA Dramaturgy and/or Directing credits include Shape of a Girl, Under Cover and the very popular Lig & Bittle at Concrete Theatre; Beneath the Ice by Eva Colmers, The Book of Ashes by Emil Sher at the Northern Alberta International Children's Festival and The Sword in the Stone, A Giraffe in Paris and Penelope vs the Aliens at the Citadel. Other credits: dramaturg for The Mommy Monologues, written by 10 women and produced at SkirtsAfire 2017; dramaturg/director for The Invention of Romance and Matara by Conni Massing and dramaturg for An Almost Perfect Thing by Nicole Moeller, all produced at Workshop West Playwrights' Theatre. Tracy has also dramaturged many times for Concrete Theatre's Sprouts Festival and Waltherdale Theatre's Cradle to Stage.
